Cameron Bennett
Youth Stars of Tomorrow

Cameron Bennett is 16 years old and a junior at Eastern Tech High School in Baltimore County, Maryland. He has been bowling ever since he could walk. Bowling is in his blood, as both of his parents, Angel and Brian Bennett, are bowlers. His dad, Brian Bennett has one PBA Regional Title and is a member of both the Greater Baltimore and Maryland State Hall of Fame. His mom, Angel Bennett, bowled in college at University of Delaware and is excited to watch Cameron get the college bowling experience.

Cameron started bowling youth league at the age of 5 on the Saturday morning youth league at Perry Hall Lanes. He currently bowls in the Friday Night Spotlight League at Greenway Bowl and the Monday Night Junior Gold League at The Lanes at Ft. Meade. Cameron is coached by Mike Sinek, the manager at The Lanes at Ft Meade who also runs the Monday Night Junior Gold League.

The Maryland State USBC Association is proud to recognize Cameron Bennett as the 2026 Youth Star of Tomorrow Scholarship recipient.

Cameron's Notable Achievements

Storm Junior Staff
High Game – 300 (x2)
High Series – 801
Storm Youth Championship U15 Super Slam
PBA Jr Regional Champion (x2)
Storm National Team Champion U15 (x2)
Maryland Pepsi Champion U15 & U16
Virginia Pepsi Champion U15
USA Bowling Regional U15 Champion and 3rd Place at Nationals
Storm Mid Atlantic Scratch Champion
PJBT Scratch Champion (x3)